

Professional Oversight – Knowledgeable Insight

Wiss partners and professionals are qualified to serve as expert witnesses, forensic accountants and valuation experts. We have been court appointed as accounting and valuation experts, fiscal agents, custodians, receivers and trustees. We understand the importance of the ability to communicate our findings with the clarity and precision demanded in a legal setting.

LAW FIRM SERVICES

Forensic Accounting

An authoritative opinion from Wiss on financial matters or data interpretation can reinforce the validity of a legal argument. Our experts offer opinions of the highest level of assurance suitable for legal review. Wiss professionals consistently deliver credible arbitration, deposition and trial testimony. Our team is able to express an independent, professional opinion in a manner that is unambiguous, accurate and respectful.

Areas of Expertise:

Breach of contract	White collar crimes
Malpractice and negligence	Product liability
Insurance claims	Copyright or patent infringement
Fraud and embezzlement
Contract and/or stockholder disputes

Economic Damage Investigation

Wiss adheres to rigorous investigative accounting principles and thorough financial analysis to quantify economic damages in cases of business interruption, breach of contract, or other situations requiring precise determination of financial loss. A Wiss report will clearly state our expert opinion, presented in a manner that simplifies complex issues.

Other Specialized Consulting

The insight and expertise of our professionals is often advantageous in discovery and preparation for trial. We identify relevant document requests, establish exactly what information you need to elicit, and assist in the development of a line of questioning. We interpret evidentiary data, explain its relative significance and render an opinion.

For cases of suspected fraudulent activity, we uncover potential irregularities and quantify any resultant damages. Our trained professionals are able to assist in the review, development and implementation of policies and procedures.

OUR EDGE

Our simple process guides you to the service you need based on the unique circumstances of your organization – from financing terms, government regulation, needs of investors, and more.

// Not only do they provide professional and timely audited services in this very regulated and complex arena, the Wiss team is always there to assist in planning and questions as applicable laws and regulations change. We continue to be very pleased with their services, especially their very timely responses to our inquiries. I can always rely on the Wiss engagement team!
